New York-Guided City Tour - The Edge - Free Time at Times Square

Start your day with a comprehensive guided tour. The tour will drive you through various iconic neighborhoods such as Greenwich Village, SoHo, Chinatown, Wall Street, and potentially make short stops for photos at landmarks like the Flatiron Building or the 9/11 Memorial. Your guide provides historical context and stories as you see the sights, which is a great way to cover a lot of ground efficiently. After the guided tour concludes head to Hudson Yards for your visit to The Edge. The highest outdoor sky deck in the Western Hemisphere. It offers 360-degree views of the city through angled glass walls and features a thrilling glass floor section. From Hudson Yards it's a short trip to the vibrant heart of Midtown for some independent exploration on Times Square. Take photos of the dazzling billboards, watch the street performers, and soak in the energy of "The Crossroads of the World". Browse the numerous large flagship stores, grab dinner at one of the many restaurants, or potentially catch a Broadway show.
